2. GBB Emergency Management Facility (EMF) Test Update

Bryon McLaughlin (EPWA) provided an update on the GBB EMF noting:

- There are plans to run an EMF in quarter 4, 2021
- The process is in good shape, the templates are up to date
- The protocol (the agreement between EPWA and AEMO about how the EMF will function) needs to evolve due to changes in personnel, name changes and statement of fact changes, which is currently being undertaken.
- The process for testing the EMF will be over 2-3 days, details to be finalised over the coming months and stakeholders will be made aware of the timeframes in due course.

Michael Thomas (AEMO) presented an overview of the processes to be followed during an activation of the GBB EMF, including EMF direction, activation, data provision requirements and variations and deactivation.

Christopher Meredith (AEMO) presented the outcomes from the WEM GSOO stakeholder survey and the proposed refinements to the 2021 WEM GSOO.

Mark Riley (AGL) commented: Peak demands can be useful for pipeline capacity considerations and ensure cross reference to web page is clear in GSOO as AEMO's website can be hard to navigate.

5. Formal Information Request (FIR) analysis

Kristine Cruz (AEMO) presented the preliminary analysis of the data received from the 2021 FIR process, noting the data reconciliation is still underway and the fully reconciled data and further analysis will be presented in a future WAGCF and in the 2021 WEM ESoo.

Byron McLaughlin (EPWA): Are the non-responders the same as last year?

- AEMO: AEMO cannot identify who the non-responders are, however, the response rate has improved from last year.

Allan McDougall (Gas Trading): How does Supplier and Consumer MCQ not match?

- AEMO: All the data hasn't been received yet, the data also has excluded small consumers, only major consumers are included in the report.
